Pres. Moore has called a Board of Officers meeting immediately following the Sept. 15 general meeting. He said that he will hold the meeting to 30 minutes and will present a few ideas for the Board to consider. He asks that all officers attend because the Society needs everyone involved to further its progress.

COMMITTEES

Andy McClary is chairman ex officio of the Programs Committee. Libby Moore has been named chairwoman of the Hospitality Committee and Jack Thompson, chairman of the Information Committee.

Chairpersons are still needed for the Ways and Means, and Membership standing committees and the Special Events Committee, as well as people to be on all of the committees. Pres. Moore will be inviting members of the Society to participate. We need your help.

ARTS FETE '82

The most important business at hand for the Society is Arts Fête '82, Sat. and Sun., Aug. 28 and 29, at the Turner-Dodge House. This annual event is cosponsored by the Society and Lansing Parks and Recreation.

Because of a late start in organizing the event, we are fortunate to have Geneva Wiskemann and Sue Cantlon assuming responsibility. Primary responsibility this year rests with Parks and Recreation. Mary McNeely also has agreed to assist. It is certain that they will need help, so if you are called upon, please volunteer.

BOOK FAIR

The Society, with the Lansing Public Library, the Lansing State Journal and the Mid-West Antiquarian Book Dealers Association, are sponsoring a Capitol City Antiquarian Book Fair and Sale in the Gallery Rooms (lower level) of the Library, 401 S. Capitol, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Sat. Oct. 16.

More than 20 dealers will offer items for the collector, the nostalgia buff, the generalist, the specialist and the reader. This first-time event for the region will benefit the Lansing Public Library's local history room. Admission is free.

The fair and sale will be accompanied by free lectures featuring: Janette Fiore of the MSU Library on "The Nye Collection," Francis Scannell, state librarian, on "Treasures of Michigan's State Library," Roy Barnett, state archivist, on "The Increasing Cost of Michigan Maps," and Kathy Stone, bookbinder, on "Care and Preservation of Books. Lectures begin at 11:30 a.m. in the auditorium adjacent to the gallery rooms.

TAPING HISTORY

The Michigan Oral History Council will have its fall meeting Oct. 23 at the Walled Lake Outdoor Education Center near Novi. Its theme will be "Videotaping Oral History." For information, call Geneva Wiskemann, 321-1746.
