BOOK FAIR

Don't forget the Capitol City Antiquarian Book Fair and Sale in the Gallery Rooms of the Lansing Public Library, co-sponsored by the Society. More than 20 dealers will be at this first-time event for the area, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Sat. Oct. 16. Admission is free.

ARTS FETE '82

President Geoffrey Moore said that, in spite of the short lead time, fewer artists, inclement weather and a lack of a supporting program, the Arts Fete, Aug. 28 and 29, was a modest success.

"This was due to the efforts of Geneva Wiskemann, Sue Cantlon, Mary McNeely and the volunteers who worked at Turner-Dodge on Saturday and Sunday," he said. "However, it is felt that the Society should evaluate this activity and review what its role should be in the future."

BOARD MEETING SEPT 15

There will be a meeting of the Board of Officers, immediately following the general meeting, Wed. Sept 15. Agenda items will include committee assignments, the future of Arts Fete and a review of the goals and objectives of the Society. This meeting will be held to 30 minutes. All officers, including directors, are asked to attend.

HISTORIC CHARLOTTE

The third Maple City Historic Tour will be held in Charlotte, Sat. Oct. 2, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. On the tour will be the Eaton County Courthouse, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, seven private homes and a cider mill. In addition there will be a band concert, luncheon and ice cream social. Tickets are $4 (seniors and children under 12, $3), available at Johnson's Paint and Floor Covering store and at the Courthouse lawn the day of the tour.

ARTRAIN '82

In conjunction with the opening of the MSU Wharton Center for the Performing Arts, Michigan Artrain '82 will be on campus, Sept. 23 - 26. Hours are 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. The train will be parked off of Service Road, east of Harrison near the MSU Food Stores Building.

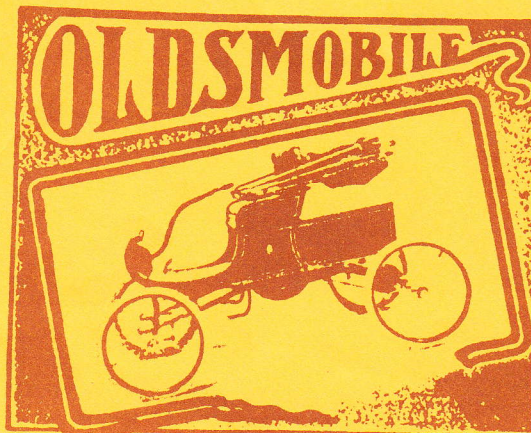

Although this travelling art exhibit has been in the Lansing area three other years, the displays are changed each year. Co-sponsors of Artrain are the Kresge Art Gallery and the MSU Museum.
