NOMINATIONS

At the April meeting, the Nominations Committee submitted the following names:

President: Eric Saterlee
Vice President: Susan Cantlon
Secretary-Treasurer: Mary McNeely
Director: Don Clark
Director: Diana Reedy
Director: Phil Siebert
Director: David Thomas

Elections will be held at the annual meeting, May 16.

STATE JOURNAL HISTORICAL EDITION

Susan Cantlon reported that a number of articles written by Historical Society members had been received. These will be used for a special section of the Lansing State Journal honoring the city's 125th birthday.

MSU MUSEUM OPENS ITS HOUSE

The MSU Museum will hold an open house, 2-4, Sun. May 6, for anyone interested in being a Museum volunteer or joining the Museum Associates. There will be displays and refreshments, as well as behind-the-scenes tours at 2:30 and 3:15.

PAST PROGRAMS

The Society's April program was a tour of the Cedar Street water treatment plant, highlighting its architecture and art, as well as its function. Fay Hendry was speaker.

Ron Hagemester presented a slide show on Lansing's railroads before a large audience at the Friends of Turner-Dodge March meeting. The Turners and Dodges were instrumental in Lansing railroad history.

The Friends of Historic Meridian had Maury Crane, head of MSU's Voice Library, as its April speaker.

ANNUAL BANQUET

Wednesday evening, May 16, 1984
Turner-Dodge House

“THE act of feasting, as you understand.
Is but a fraction of the work in hand;
Its nobler half is that ethereal meat
The papers call “the intellectual treat.”
