

THE HAMPTON SINGERS.—This celebrated band of colored singers, who were nearly all born in slavery, and who faithfully render the melodies so peculiar to slave life, will give one of their popular concerts at the opera house next Monday evening, May 31. The newspaper press of the east is unani- mously enthusiastic in praise of them as vocalists. They are trying to secure funds for the erection of the Virginia hall at the Hampton normal and agri- cultural institute.
