

period in 1880.

By the mistake of an informant, the name of one of the donors of the dinner to the bricklayers' union on the occasion of their laying the walls of the African M. E. church was not given correctly. It should have read E. S. Porter, the grocer. The whole party did a noble thing, and should receive all honor due.

Allen, Hall & Co.'s planing-mill, and

M
fo
su
J.
tr
W E
an te
In T