
A GRATEFUL ACT.—About two years ago, through the efforts of some of our citizens, notably S. Lee Cook, a sufficient sum was raised by subscription to purchase a little home for "Father Little," an old colored man, one of the first residents of Lansing, and a veritable "Uncle Tom." He was presented with a warranty deed of the property. Taking into consideration that the roof which shelters him in his old age is the symbolized expression of a noble charity, Mr. Little deemed it eminently fitting that it should be dedicated to that virtue, and he has therefore, through his will and testament, given the premises to the Lansing Industrial aid society,—they to enter into possession on his decease, and the property to be forever kept as an industrial home for the poor. Dr. I. H. Bartholomew is named as his executor. In return, the society is verbally pledged to look to the welfare of Mr. Little during the remainder of his life.
