

ious a plight as to have its records and files hang on a county election every two years.

The colored amateur dramatic club was greeted with a good audience last Wednesday evening, and did well, but the net receipts were not large enough to purchase the opera house, and the club will postpone negotiations in that direction until spring.

The greenbackers of Lansing meet in city convention to-night, "to go through de

it
an
bo
tie
of
to
st
lo
sh
in
th