

cape with a small bill for horse feed.

On Sunday, Aug. 1, the A. M. E. society held its first meeting in the new church on Pine street, a portion of the rear having been fitted up for the purpose. It being Emancipation day, it was deemed proper that a memorial praise service should be held to commemorate both events, and a very interesting and instructive service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Brown, a Congregational clergyman of this city.